Suddenly.

New York, October 15.—Despite the perfect eather and promising card, the attendance at Beiont Park today showed an inexplicable failing off. obody could have foreseen the wholesale scratchings which reduced the two big handicaps, the Rambo and the Hunter, to two-horse races, and partially finded the remainder of the excellent programmence the apparent lack of interest in the sport effected by this state of affairs was commented nown. Notwithstanding the depleted fields in the programment of the state of the sport of the state of the wards displaced. The condensed history of the Autumn Meadowbrook Steeplechase is as follows: Year. Winner. A. Wt. Jockey. Val. Time. 1992 Cheval d'or . 6 140 Mr. Harris. $ 900 6:15 1903. Another coup went through successfully in the last race. This time it was Nimbus, the sprinting chamolon of the Empire City meeting in August, which was the vehicle for lise consummation. He never gave his shrewd backers a moment's uneasiness, as he led by a wide margin from start to finish. The Brighton Beach track will soon be a network of streets and avenues with houses lining them. Already the fence that enclosed the famous old track is in the course of destruction. Tomorrow the work of leveling the ground will begin and the track will soon be obliterated. Before the snow flies nothing will remain of one of the most noted tracks in the country.

According to the list furnished by A. J. Joyner According to the list furnished by A. J. Joyner this afternoon, the Whitney shipment of thorough-breds for England next Saturday will consist of Stamina, Baby Wolf, Delirium, Bobbin, Perseus, Field Daisy, Hillside and sixteen yearlings. Only three, Priscillian, Practical and Antaeus, belonging to August Belmont will be sent over on the Minne-babo ha. The Benning fall meeting has been officially called offiames R. Keene said today that if any stalls had been engaged for his horses at Oakland or Santa Anita it was without his knowledge. Neither was he aware of the fact that Maskette was destined for racing in California. "On the contrary she will probably go to England with Colin, Ballot and the others," he remarked. "I don't know just how many of my horses will be raced abroad. I haven't had the time to canvass the situation thoroughly. I may race a dozen two-year-olds on the other side next season, certainly all that are eligible to stakes there."

race a dozen two-year-olds on the other side next season, certainly all that are eligible to stakes there."

Two carloads of racers were shipped to Oakland, Cal., today. Those owned by James McManus were included in the consignment.

It has developed that the crack filly, Gowan, was cut down behind in her last race.

Some feeling exists as to the horsemen who are leaving here for the west before election day. Several have gone and others are preparing to depart. They mostly are westerners, who have made the cast their stamping ground during the summer months. It is claimed they should have followed the example set by T. Griffin, Julius Bauer, J. A. Bennet and others, who, while desiring to ship to California early, have decided to remain here until they have stoted. The horsemen who are to remain claim that they stay behind at some cost to fight the battles for others, who will be the first to get under the cover of the Jockey Club if there is racing here next year. It is freely asserted that racing will be a thing of the past unless there are changes from the present conditions. An instance of the falling off in attendance can be gathered from the fact that all a told there are only seven hundred and fifty annual rmembers belonging to the several associations. Out of that number not more than fifty have attended the meetings recently and then only occasionally, the meetings recently and then only occasionally, to will drag them into the courts on some pretext. The race-going public is in much the same frame of mind, hence the small attendance and the shrinkage in the gate receipts.

It is easily seen what will become of the sport under such conditions. Time and hard work only on the part of those concerned can bring back the high-class racing that once existed.

That there will be a great fight in the courts this winter is assured, and it probably depends upon the decisions and the interpretation of the existing law as to whether there will be a continuance of racing in this state.

DOUGLAS PARK HORSEMEN PLEASED

Official Notice Sent Them That the Latonia Meeting Will Begin with Bookmaking.

Louisville, Ky., October 15.—The State Racing commission's action of yesterday in refusing the atonia Jockey Club permission to put on books at the coming meeting and the probable attitude of the atonia management in regard to the matter, held hief interest in a racing way for the horsemen today mili an official announcement came from Secretary ohn B. Dillon of Latonia in the form of a telegram ddressed to John Hachmeister in the following language:

Latonia management in regard to the matter, held chief interest in a racing way for the horsemen today until an official announcement came from Secretary John P. Dillon of Latonia in the form of a telegram addressed to John Hachmeister in the following language:

John P. Dillon of Latonia in the form of a telegram addressed to John Hachmeister in the following language:

Latonia Jockev Club today they decided to abundon the pari-naturel machines and reinstate bookmaking. Fall meeting begins October 19."

This announcement signifies that the Latonia management intends to carry the matter into the courts for a review, which, under the act that created the commission, they have a right to do.

While some horsemen deplore the fact that the matter has to be carried into court, others take the stand that the commission is exceeding its authority over the Latonia track and run off the dates with a uniform standard of $250 purses, was severely commented on by nearly all the horsemen.

Charles F. Grainger of the State Racing Commission, in explaining bis attitude with reference to the putting on of books at Latonia, said this afternoon: "Everybody knows that I believe pari-mutuels are the thing, and this fall I expected one of the creates more times in the history of Louisville with reflects more times in the history of Louisville with reflects more times in the history of Louisville with the Latonia Jockey Club, who have a vast sum of more yludgment against that of the overwhelming majority. When the turfmen and those identified with the Latonia Jockey Club, who have a vast sum of morey invested, stated to the racing commission that they could show where the books would be addressed by the commission was seen this afternoon and when asked what would be done up the line, he replied:

"All that I can say is that the Latonia Jockey Club, was seen this afternoon and when asked what would be done up the line, he replied:

"All that I can say is that the Latonia Jockey Club, was seen this afternoon and when asked what would in last place and beaten off. The time of the race. 1:40g, reduces the former 1:40g set by Miltidaes in 1906.

The closing race at a mile and seventy yards resulted in a run-up after Hostile Hyphen's victory over Topsy Robinson. S. Nugent, who trains Arrow Swift, which finished fourth in the race, raised Hostile Hyphen $200 over his entered price of $600, but failed to get him. His bid of $1,000 came a trifle laje. Nugent then put in a claim for Topsy Robinson, which he got for $625. Fourteen medicere two-year-olds started in the second race and Buffons, the favorite, proved much the best by winning as his rider pleased from Mrs. Sewall. Pat Dunne's Severus had matters practically his own way in the third race and won with speed to spare.

Bro. Breeze, which was a carded starter in the closing race, was ordered withdrawn on account of lack of identification.

Through a mistake on the part of the calculators, holders of place tickets on Friend Harry and Anna L. Daley were paid off a fraction short. The right amount is shown in the form charts.

The officials for the Latonia meeting will be Charles Frice, presiding judge; John B. Dillon, associate judge; E. W. Maginn, racing secretary, and J. Holtman, starier.

'REGISTERED WAGERING" FOR NEW ORLEANS

New Orleans, La., October 15.—Having devised what he believes will be a successful betting scheme within the pale of the Locke law. President Samuel F. Heaslin today made further announcement regarding the onening of inhety-days whater race neeting here December 5.

"Begistered wagering" will be employed as a substitute for the old bookmaking. It was further announced that Mr. Heaslip will be manager of the winter meeting. He said: "No owner of a race horse or any person interested directly or indirectly in the running of horses will have anything to do with the management of the courses.

"No gambling or betting, except between individuals, will be bermitted on the premises. No bets, even between individuals, will be allowed on the premises except on the condition that each deposit the amount of their wager in cash with the association at the time that wager is made.

"The association will deduct from the aggregate amount five per cent, for the purpose of protecting the public and iking the responsibility of individuals betting. The records of the court show that the individual wagering on the old Metafric course was attended by differences which often resulted in law-suits, which, under this method, is obviated.

"Trresponsible persons, track officials or such persons as the association sees fit to prevent will not be allowed to wager, placing the proposition upon the lines, in my estimation, desired by those who were interested in the passing of the Locke bill. That is: We are not assisting, aiding, encouraging or abetting wagering, for the reason that the association penalizes it. With the censorship which I will require I will eliminate all conditions which would raise moral issues.

"Only men of known integrity will be employed as

SIGNIFICANT AND WEIGHTY WARNING.

The racing now going on at the half-mile Dufferin Park track, near Toronto, has not attracted much attention, but is so purely racing for betting purposes only that it is displeasing to the organized racing bodies of Canada, and quite probably will result in outlawry for the participants and outlawry that will stand. The following fair warning to all concerned speaks for itself:

"Toronto, Ont., October 15, 1908.

"Doubt Racing Form:
"The Canadian racing associations do not approve such a meeting as is now being held by the York Riding and Driving Club at Dufferin Park, Toronto, as being in their opinion opposed to the true interests of racing, and hereby call the attention of owners, trainers, jockeys and all officials connected therewith to their dirst expression of opinion in this matter.

"W. P. Fraser, "Secretary."

Toronto, Ont., October 15.—W. P. Fraser, secretary of the newly formed Canadian Racing Association, today issued a notice to owners, trainers, fockeys and officials connected with the Dufferin Park track that "this was the first expression of onlion" of the new association, the inference is that "the next expression of opinion" will be an edict of outlawry. The Dufferin Park management have made no statement, but it is said on good authority that they will continue to race to a paying patronage.

The pace, as the time of 3:032 shows, was exceedingly slow, and it was most probably this that led to the defeat of M. Hanse's erack filly.

Jockeys J. McIntyre, W. Kelly and Sandy, who were suspended during the recent Seattle meeting, are making strenuous efforts to be reinstated so that they will be able to ride next winter. Whether they or their friends will be able to convince the officials that such a course is advisable remains to be seen.

Lyman Davis remarked the other day that the passage of the Hart-Agnew law in New York had worked such havoc to the breeding interests of Kentacky that the whole state had suffered in consequence. "Kentacky did not thoroughly realize the far-reaching effects of the law." he said, "until the yearlings were sent to market. It was known that it would hurt the breeders, but it has done more than that—it has irreparably hurt the whole state. Right now Kentucky is as much interested in the defeat of Governor Hughes as New York could possibly be."

Abandoned Dates of Washington Jockey Club.

Washington, D. C., October 15.—Encouraged by the increased attendance which is turning out to witness the sport provided by the Washington Horse Show and Racing Association, several local people have got together and an effort will be made to hold a fall meeting at Benning to follow that at Baltimore, the Washington Jockey Club having abandoned its fall dates.

The scheme as yet is not perfected. On behalf of the Westehester Racing Association, S. S. Howland has offered the use of the track plant without cost to Colonel Robert Neville, H. R. Dulany and Samuel Ross and those gentlemen are making an effort to interest one or two others. Before any actual announcement will be made, the business men and hotel proprietors of Washington will be canvassed and if they give any encouragement, a meeting will probably be given. The idea is to give ten days' racing with $250 purses and one $400 handicap. There will be featured as attractions long distance racing and steeplechasing. A definite announcement will probably be made to horsemen by Colonel Neville within the next few days.

Well matched fields produced stirring contests at Benning this afternoon. Three of the races resulted in driving finishes, and in two of them the winner was in doubt until the official placing was displayed.

In the inaugural dash four of the six starters finished heads apart with all under the whip and fighting it out. The winner turned up in Hanonia, which beat out Great Jublice by a nose after being headed all over the track in the stretch drive. The steeplechase also furnished a nose finish, with Canvas getting the long end of the purse.

Miss Perigord, which won the third race, was a four-year-old maiden and today's effort was her first in public. She was bred by her owner. Colonel Robert Neville, in Virginia, and is a real good looker.
